MADDEEN NEWS

Madden, Sept. 1.—Pulling fodder is now the order of the day in this community. Fodder is not so good but corn perhaps is some better than at first thought to be. Some few are cutting tops instead of pulling fodder. Farm papers plead loud and long for cutting corn instead of pulling fodder, but old time customs and manners are hard to forget.

The ladies of the New Prospect Mission society are busy making preparations to entertain the W. M. U. of Laurens county. Homes have been assigned delegates—a list of which will appear in this week's paper. A helpful meeting is expected.

The chairman of the old preachers committee states that the contributions for this very worthy benevolence are very much behind. He begs that all members of the Laurens Baptist Association take this matter to their hearts. If they will do so it will be a very easy matter to raise the required apportionment by the time the association meets. See to it, you clerks of the churches, that this matter is given attention.

Dr. K. C. Kibler, "one of the boys who wore the gray," of Prosperity, is up on a visit to his old comrade, and life-long friend, Mr. Jno. R. Finley.

In the large audience that witnessed the ordinance of baptism at New Prospect Sunday were Dr. and Mrs. Cunningham, of Vermont. Then there was Mr. and Mrs. Pink Simpson, of the southern boundary of Uncle Sam's domain, from the magnificent lone star state. All these good people were at home with us. It may interest the older ones of your readers to know that Mrs. Simpson was raised near here, she being a granddaughter of the late Capt. Billy Boyd.

Miss Azile Wofford, accompanied by her brothers, John W. and Tom, have gone on a visit to relatives at Woodruff and Switzer.

Mr. Ernest Burtis and family, who have been living here for the past few months, have moved near Ekoni, their former home.

Mrs. Omega Timmerman and little daughter, after a stay of several weeks with her parents, have returned to her home in Augusta.

Miss Louise Dean and brother James have been visiting relatives in Greenville.

Dr. Cunningham, Mrs. Wofford, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Brown spent a very pleasant day Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Madden.

Mrs. Mollie Langston accompanied by her son, R. J. Langston, visited her sister, Mrs. John Wharton, of Waterloo, recently. The friends and relatives of Mrs. Wharton will be glad to hear that she is convalescing after a very severe illness.

Mrs. John L. Finley has been quite sick for the past few days.

Little Maude Wofford is also sick with chills. We trust that both will soon be better.

Mr. T. L. Langston and daughter, Susie, attended the Union meeting at Beulah and also stopped over to see his sister, Mrs. Evie Power.

Some of the young people of the neighborhood have been attending the services at Mt. Pleasant church and report a good meeting.

Will Open Ginnery.

I have erected a first-class Munger System Ginnery on the old Roller Mill site. It will be operated by electricity and will be open to the public at the beginning of the season. The first five bales will be ginned free.

TYLERSVILLE DOTS.

Tylersville, Sept. 1.—This section of the county was visited by very refreshing rains last Friday.

Misses Grace and Fannie Poole and brother, Joshua, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Sumner and family.

Miss Mattie Belle Peterson spent Tuesday night with Miss Mattie Donnan.

Mr. J. S. Craig spent Sunday with relatives at Ora.

Mrs. J. L. Cooper is visiting at the home of Mrs. M. O. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Garrett attended the Garrett reunion last Wednesday.

Misses Fannie and Mattie Bobo Poole spent Thursday with Mrs. R. E. Poole.

Miss Mattie Donnan visited relatives near Woodruff last week.

Mr. Niles Clark of Clinton spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. M. O. Clark.

Mrs. Mag. Little was a visitor in Laurens last Wednesday.

Mr. T. P. Poole was a business visitor in Enoree last Thursday.

He Knew.

"What happens," shouted the candidate, "when you put the almighty dollar before the man?" "The man goes after it," answered the old farmer in the front row.

LISBON LOCALS.

Lisbon, Sept. 1.—The farmers are very busy now pulling fodder while the sun shines. The old cotton has commenced to open right fast, and the farmers will soon be in the midst of every day work, picking cotton, sowing oats, getting ready to do their deep plowing this fall. Crops are needing rain these days. The cool nights and the hot sun make a telling effect in the young cotton. If we have an early fall the cotton will certainly be short in places, especially the young cotton. Some people think now that June is the month to plant cotton but, you mind what we predict, there is going to be an early fall and then you will see what the young cotton will do. These last rains have made a wonderful improvement on the young corn.

Mr. Frank Sprouse has rented the Smith place. Mrs. Smith will go to Americus, Ga., to live with her daughter, Mrs. Lina Bowers. We hate to see this good woman leave her home. She is a good woman and a good neighbor and we all will miss her so much.

Old Aunt Mary, wife of Uncle Ike McDowell, colored, died at her daughter's, on Mr. Furman Brown's place last Monday night. A few hours before she died she told her husband that she wanted to get up, and for all the children to come into her room where she wanted to pray with them her last time. She prayed and begged them to live a better life than they might meet her in heaven. Aunt Mary belonged to two societies. They gave her a decent burial and the society will pay her husband and children $150.00 by the first of December. Uncle Ike and Aunt Mary lived with J. T. A. Ballew. They have a good crop and owe but very little. Uncle Ike belonged to Mr. A. R. Holmes' mother and a better woman never lived on this earth than she. He always looked forward to the present his young master, Mr. Joe Holmes, sent him every Christmas.

Messrs. Blume and Henry Milam are visiting their brother, Robt. Milam and family in Greenville this week.

The Hon. B. H. Pasley, of Cold Point is staying with his sisters while the young men are taking a few days rest and pleasure.

Mrs. J. T. A. Ballew has returned from Spartanburg with her niece and nephews, Ella, J. T. Carroll, Lawrence Schayer Teague, of Spartanburg and Eloise Dunlap, of Laurens, to spend a while.

Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Martin's little child is very sick. We hope that the little fellow will soon be up again.

Mr. Simpson Malone is very feeble. This old war horse, we are sorry to say, is not doing doing so well for the last few months, yet the poor old fellow has a garden, potatoes and melon patch, also a few chickens, that he can dispose of to make a living.

Mr. A. J. Smith, deceased, gave him a house and these patches free of rent this year. He says "I don't know what I will do since the death of my old friend, Mr. A. J. Smith." You could see how it effected the old man when he spoke of his dead friend.

HANGED FROM LIMB.

Bullet Riddled Body of Negro Found By Coroner.

Greenville, Ga., Aug. 27.—The bullet riddled body of Virgil Swanson, a negro, was found hanging from a limb in a lonely spot near here late yesterday, the local coroner learned today. A verdict of death at the hands of unknown parties was the result of the coroner's investigation. It was said the body evidently had been hanging from the tree several hours before being discovered. The lynching is supposed to have been a sequel to the killing of L. C. Marchmon, a farmer, by Walter Brewster, a negro, about a week ago. Brewster was charged with having aided Brewster to hide from the officers.

Reid Family Reunion.

On Aug. 27th a reunion of the Reid family was held at the home of Mr. J. Rhett Reid in honor of Mrs. Mary I. Reid, who is on a visit to Laurens. The members of the family gathered on the porch and lawn at an early hour. The older members of the family spent the morning in pleasant conversation and exchanging experiences of the past years while the children enjoyed auto rides over the city. At one o'clock, all were summoned to the shady lawn where a bountiful dinner was enjoyed by all present.

Those that enjoyed the day were the following: Mrs. Lawrence Lanford and family of Glenn Springs, Mrs. R. Bailey of Clinton, Mr. W. L. Reid and family of Barksdale, Mr. S. C. Reid and family of Laurens, Mr. John Reid of Laurens, and Miss Agatha Reid of Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. Gossett of Pacolet, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Reid of Laurens. We are sure the memories of the day will linger in the minds of those who attended for years to come and especially with the children, who enjoyed the day with those they have learned to love.
